Pascagoula Public Library
Local History & Genealogy Dept.
Urie Family

FRIDAY.....AUGUST 20, 1897.

LOCAL NEWS.

Showery weather.

It is to come off very soon.

Good crop of acuppernongs here.

He was lost on the cruiser Montgomery last Friday.

The du-ke says hughes (who's) on the wrong track.

The price of bicycles has dropped away down from $100 to $25.

Scranton has four retail liquor saloons and two wholesale dealers in beer.

Scranton needs more industries to give employment to our many idle people.

We would rather be called "straight-laced" than have no morel character at all.

Miss Louise Turnbull, of New Orleans, is on a visit to her brother's family here.

Mrs. Widow John Tarkel and niece, Miss Mena Colle, returned from St. Louis last week.

Mrs. Minnie Favorite, of Pensacola, Fla., is visiting with Mrs. F. D. Ruter on Pascagoula street.

Mrs. E. L. Deas, of New Orleans, is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. James McFaul, at Pascagoula.

If you want to keep posted with the news of Jackson county subscribe and read the DEMOCRAT-STAR.

Our people have a "mighty talent" for taking to strangers and every new thing that comes along.

Rev. D. O. Byers will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday at 4 p. m. All cordially invited.

Rev. O. Switzer, of Ocean Springs, will preach in the Methodist church Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. and 8 o'clock p. m.

Messrs. Ford & Ford, C. H. Wood and H. Bloomfield attended United States Circuit Court at Mississippi City this week.

Misses Olivia Berthencourt and May Sirey, of Algiers, La., are visiting the Misses Emma and Irene Mansfield on Delmas avenue.

Miss Clara O'Connor, an accomplished young lady of New Orleans, is visiting her friend, Mrs. Eugene Gautier, at West Pascagoula.

The steam yacht Washington and tugs Leo and Nellie took large parties to visit the cruiser Montgomery at Ship Island last week.

Mr. G. M. Luce reached here from Basin Wednesday on route to Grand Rapids, Mich., where he will join his family, returning in a few weeks.

Mrs. D. J. Gayle and daughter, of Selma, New Orleans, is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Tarkel, Sr.

Judge W. G. Henderson, of Biloxi, ex-collector of customs, visited our town on legal business Wednesday.

Next Monday night a garden party will be given at the Pavilion, Pascagoula, for the benefit of the Catholic chapel.

Miss Annie Toomer, a beautiful and accomplished belle of Mobile, is visiting her friend, Miss Jessie Crosbie, at Eastside.

Mr. John Pankey and wife and Messrs. Joe and Frank Pankey came down Sunday from Mobile to visit the old folks at home.

We are pleased to mention that Master Jimmie George, of Pascagoula, who was recently bitten by a small dog, is getting well.

The Mayor and Board of Aldermen let the contract for the town artesian well to the Hart Well Co., of Plaquemine, La., for $1300.

Capt. C. L. Johnson, wife and daughter, Miss Mamie, returned from an extended trip through the East and Canada on Tuesday last.

Mr. R. D. Mills, of Birmingham, Ala., stepson of Mr. R. A. Dimitry, of Round Island, after a month's outing, left for his home last Friday.

A little stranger, in the form of a beautiful girl babe, arrived at the home of Capt. and Mrs. H. C. Urie on Wednesday evening last. We congratulate the parents on the birth of number nine, and hope they will continue in the good work until the baker's dozen is reached.

Garbage wagons are an absolute necessity in a large town like this. Scranton is on a boom and is losing all its village-like appearance, and a step in this line would be one of the first evidences of a desire to protect the health of its citizens and make the town a desirable and attractive place of residence.

Capt. S. R. Thompson returned home Wednesday from Mississippi City, where he had been serving this week on the United States Grand Jury. He reports only twenty-seven indictments. Most of them were for running blind tigers and depredating on government lands. Court adjourned Wednesday for the term.

On Friday evening last Clara Bilbo came near losing her life at the hands of her husband, David Bilbo, both parties being negroes. Clara was severely wounded in two places on the right arm, severing all its muscles and the radial and ulnar arteries; the arm was so badly injured as to necessitate its removal; several gashes on the right side of the face involved the ear and cheek; there were two cuts on the back of the neck and one on the left hand. She was attended by Drs. Ford and Cox, who were assisted by Dr. Moore Soniat, of New Orleans, who is on a visit to friends here.

"In time of peace prepare for war." The same price as it is bein city. He also has a bea ment of MATTING RUGS

prices.

Try some of that soap a thirty (30) bars for one do

W. M. Canty has just
of the best assorted lines
price cook and heating shown in Scranton.

Bids wanted for the fence around public sch
For plans and specificati
F. E. FOSTER,
G. A. STEMPER
B. F. BROWNE
[27-tf] C

Ladies, W. M. Canty is low quarter shoes at re
and also has a lot of cl shoes, worth $1.50 that h at 75c.

FOR SALE.

One sail and jib as g
made by Spearing & Co., leans; size of jib 20 ft. on 30 ft. on the hoist. Sail boom and 28 ft. hoist, a gaff. Will sell at a bargai be seen at Morris' pavilio son avenue, Ocean Sp Postoffice box, No. 11.

ST. STANISLAUS C
Bay St. Louis, Miss.—This College begins its next ses day, Sept. 2. Situated region, enjoying continuo es, this Institution affords ty for acquiring a solid ed
mathematical and Eng
ments are particularly eff
for practical business tr
unexcelled in the South.
Course is provided for th
to adopt one of the Medals were awarded to both at the Paris and Chi tions. For terms and pa dress President.

ADDITIONAL OCEAN SPRI

SEVENTEENTH ANNIVE

OCEAN SPRINGS FIR

Wednesday was a gala Springs, the occasion bei
bration of the seventee